++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Increasingly cloudy tonight with patchy rain for some.

This Evening and Tonight:
Cloud will become more widespread overnight, but with some clear spells too. Some will also see intermittent outbreaks of patchy light rain. It will be a milder night than recently and will stay largely frost-free. Minimum temperature 5 deg C (41 deg F).

Wednesday:
After a cloudy morning with further patchy rain in places, it will be a largely dry afternoon, with cloud breaking up and allowing for some sunny spells. Cooler than Tuesday. Maximum temperature 13 deg C (55 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Staying fine and dry throughout the period, with plenty of sunny spells and patchy fair-weather cloud. Becoming quite warm again by day, but overnight frosts are still possible.
